Music chosen by or for:

The Romulus Singers

The Romulus Singers was formed in 2000. Based in Hale, Cheshire, we perform a wide range of sacred and secular music, mainly a capella. We meet to rehearse fortnightly on Tuesday evenings.

We have enjoyed performing under conductors Christopher Foy, Imelda Leah, Jon Henderson and Kate Shipway. We have given concerts in many locations in the area, including Hale, Ashley, Arley and Chelford and further afield in the Fylde Peninsula, Kirkby Lonsdale and Cartmel Priory. In October 2014 we performed in the Alpujarras region of Spain as part of the 'Music in the Mountains' festival. In February 2015 the Romulus Singers came first in the Choral Recital section of the Hazel Grove Music Festival.

More details about The Romulus Singers, including our extensive repertoire, can be found on our web site: www.romulus-singers.co.uk.

Kate Shipway - Musical Director

Since joining her local church choir at the age of five, Kate's love of singing has seen her perform in many venues, throughout Britain and Europe.

Kate joined the Romulus Singers in the summer of 2013, and brought with her a love of choral music and a passion to further develop the choir in terms of repertoire and performance. Alongside her appointment as the Musical Director of the Romulus Singers, Kate sings lead in SK4, an a capella quartet based in Stockport and alto in Sine Nomine, an International Touring Choir, who regularly perform at concerts across Europe and beyond. She works for Trafford Music Service as a vocal tutor,

At sixteen, she attended a Sing for Pleasure summer school and there discovered a flair for conducting. After her A-level studies, Kate was awarded a scholarship to the Poole Gakuin University in Japan, where she studied Japanese language and culture as well as taking part in school workshops teaching English songs.

In January 2005, she founded Wigan Community Choir to offer people of all ages, many without previous choral experience, the opportunity to enjoy making music. She left that choir in July 2008 to further her own musical studies at The University of Cumbria. Until the Spring of 2012 Kate was Musical Director of the Liberty Belles UK, a female barbershop chorus based in Stockport. Until recently Kate conducted the Rossendale Ladies Choir and Rossendale Male Voice Choir, but is now concentrating on further conducting studies and a new business venture.
